

As a lifelong Indiana citizen, I am very concerned about losing the benefit we have gained by the do not call listing and would urge that it not be changed as proposed. It has been a great relief to not be constantly harrassed with telemarketing calls.